

IFIC GUIDELINES FOR USE OF LIMITED AUTHORIZATION FORM
(for client name mutual fund accounts only – Individual and Joint Accounts)
Version IFIC/LA-I&J-March 2005

These guidelines are provided to assist Dealers in the completion and use of the Limited Authorization Form (“LAF”) and for the information of Fund Companies. Unless defined below, all capitalized terms used herein have the same meanings as described in the LAF.

Use of LAF

1. The LAF is only intended for use in connection with individual and joint accounts held in client name only. It may not be used for intermediary accounts, nominee accounts, corporate held accounts, “in trust for” accounts or any other type of accounts.
2. A LAF covers all existing and future accounts conducted by an Investor/s. A single LAF is required for purposes of providing trading instructions on all accounts held by a single Investor. In the case of joint accounts, a separate jointly signed LAF is required for all accounts conducted by the same joint Investors. Two or more Investors cannot operate their jointly held accounts under the authority of separately signed LAFs.
3. A copy of the LAF must accompany the initial trade authorization conveyed to each Fund Company. Thereafter, [unless specifically required by a Fund Manager] the Instruction Confirmation Notice (see paragraph 13 below) must accompany each subsequent trade authorization for the purchase, redemption or switch of mutual fund securities on all accounts in the name of the Investor/s where the Investor/s signature/s is/are normally required to execute those transactions by the Fund Company. A switch entails a change of investments between different mutual funds administered by the same Fund Company and does not include a transfer of investments between mutual funds administered by different Fund Companies.
4. The LAF cannot be used to convey non-financial changes to the Fund Company in respect of the accounts of the Investor/s. For example, for an address change a written authority from the Investor/s must be provided to the Fund Company. Some Fund Companies may accept non-financial changes without requiring it to be confirmed in writing by the Investor/s.
5. NO DISCRETIONARY TRADING MAY BE CARRIED OUT UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE LAF. A Dealer may only initiate a trade following receipt of prior specific instructions thereon from the Investor/s. The Dealer Representative should advise each Investor that by signing the LAF, the Investor is/are not granting discretionary trading authority and, accordingly, there will not be any trading on the accounts of the Investor/s without in each case the prior specific authorization of the Investor/s.
6. The LAF can be used for all purchases, switches and redemptions on all current and future accounts (once opened) held in the name of the Investor/s. However, a Dealer cannot instruct a Fund Company to open new accounts for an Investor under the authority of the LAF.

7. The manner in which a Dealer will accept instructions from the Investor/s is subject to the Dealer's own internal policies and may, for example, include an acceptance of instructions by telephone, facsimile or other electronic means. Dealers may also exclude specific transactions based on their own internal policies, but the LAF may not be altered in any manner to reflect such internal policies.
8. For residents of all provinces and territories, other than Quebec, any LAF executed after May 1, 2005 must be completed on the current LAF IFIC/LA-I&J-March 2005. Earlier versions of the LAF may not afford Investors, Fund Companies and Dealers the same benefits and protection as the new version and certain Fund Companies may reject trade instructions transmitted under authority of such earlier versions. Dealers are encouraged to have the new version of the LAF executed by Investors.
9. For resident in Quebec, all trades after March 1, 2006 must be executed under the authority of IFIQ/AL-I&J-March 2005. N.B. In Quebec written revocation of an existing LAF is required with the signature/s duly witnessed. For joint accounts written revocation must be provided by all joint account holders.
10. All trades in connection with joint accounts given effective March 1, 2006 must be executed under the authority of LAF IFIC/LA-I&J-March 2005. Some Fund Companies may reject trade instructions on joint accounts given under the authority of other versions of the LAF.
11. The fields of this LAF can be populated electronically if downloaded from IFIC's website.
12. The IFIC logo and form version number may not be used on any reproduction of the LAF which is not identical in all respects with the form available on IFIC's website, other than for the customization of the LAF by insertion of the name and logo of the Dealer. Some Fund Companies may reject trades given under authority of a LAF which is not identical in form and content with the current IFIC LAF.

Instruction Confirmation Notice ("ICN")

13. As indicated in paragraph 3 above, a copy of the signed LAF must accompany the initial trade authorization conveyed to each Fund Company. To avoid the necessity of providing a copy of the LAF on all subsequent trades, a Dealer may elect (but is not obliged) to utilize a copy of the ICN. The ICN is only one page in length and can more easily be faxed to a Fund Company. Some Fund Companies may reject the use of the ICN.

Dealer Representative Code

14. The Dealer Representative code indicated on a trade authorization must be the same as the one reflected on the accounts of the Investor/s. For example, when the Dealer Representative is on vacation and another dealer representative is dealing with the Investor on his or her behalf, the code of the Dealer Representative named in the LAF must be included on any trade instructions, in addition to the name and dealer representative code of the substitute dealer representative who took the instructions from the Investor/s. Some Dealers may not permit a 'substitute' dealer representative to accept or implement trade instructions on behalf of the Dealer Representative named in the LAF.

Recording Instructions

15. It is important that the trade instructions of the Investor/s are retained for purposes of subsequent review by a Fund Company, the Investor/s or the appropriate securities regulatory authorities.
16. The records retained must include the date, time and manner under which the instructions were given, the account number/s of the Investor/s, the particulars of the securities to be purchased, redeemed or switched, confirmation as to any agreement reached on fees to be paid on the transaction/s and, in the case of redemptions, a notation of the instructions as to where the proceeds of redemption are to be sent or reinvested. It is recommended that these records be retained for a minimum period of seven (7) years from the date of each trade. This is not intended to be an exhaustive list and may be supplemented in accordance with the Dealer's internal policies and the requirements of the applicable regulatory authority.
17. All instructions must be confirmed to the Investor/s through the normal trade confirmation process. Dealers should check trade confirmations to ensure that the transactions correspond to the instructions received from the Investor/s.

Witnesses

18. The LAF is not intended to be a power of attorney, but rather a form of limited agency. As such, it need not comply with the witness provisions of any legislation. A single witness should witness the signature of the Investor/s. While the Dealer Representative can act as a witness, he/she may not guarantee the signature/s of the Investor/s.
19. If the Fund Company requires a guarantee of the signature/s of the Investor/s, then a person duly authorized to do so on behalf of a bank, trust company or the Dealer, as the case may be, must sign the signature guarantee portion of the LAF. The Dealer Representative named on the LAF cannot act as guarantor to the signature/s of the Investor/s.
20. As an alternative to a signature guarantee, the Dealer may choose to use the Securities Transfer Agents Medallion Program ("STAMP") which has been endorsed by the Securities and Exchange Commission in the United States. The STAMP Program allows a dealer to purchase insurance, which entitles the dealer to use a special stamp as a signature guarantee. The insurance will operate to cover any losses resulting from the stamp being applied incorrectly, or if fraud or other losses occur.

Bankruptcy and Insolvency Information

21. Under the Additional Information, which is part of the LAF, there is important information provided regarding the status of accounts administered under the authority of the LAF in the event of the Dealer's bankruptcy.
22. The securities regulatory authorities requested inclusion of this information in the LAF and it is important that Investor/s be made aware of the possible consequences to the assets in their accounts in the event of the bankruptcy of the Dealer.

Retention of LAF and ICN

23. Dealers should retain the original LAF and ICN for a period of at least seven (7) years from the date of the last trade completed in reliance upon the LAF. However, Dealers may be required to retain these documents for such longer periods as may be prudent given the applicable provisions of the proceeds of crime and money laundering legislation or the statutes of limitations legislation in the jurisdictions in which the Investors and Dealers are resident.
24. The securities regulatory authorities, Fund Companies, and other authorized third parties may request access to, or require copies of, the original or imaged versions of the LAF and ICN.

Additional Information

1. By signing this Limited Authorization, you are authorizing the Dealer to arrange for the execution on your behalf, on all current and future accounts that you conduct with the Dealer (either as individual or by the same joint account holders) of orders for: (a) purchases, (b) switches or (c) redemptions of mutual fund securities as set out in the current prospectus of the mutual fund concerned.
2. This Limited Authorization allows your Dealer to relay your instructions to a Fund Company. Your Dealer and its representatives may not authorize any transactions on your behalf without your prior specific instructions in each case.
3. Your Dealer is required to keep a record of your instructions for each transaction in your file. We recommend that you also keep a record of all instructions you give to your Dealer.
4. You should ensure that the trade confirmations that you receive correspond to your instructions.
5. When you provide instructions to your Dealer for the purchase of securities you must clearly indicate the purchase option you have selected as set out in the current prospectus of the mutual fund concerned.
6. When you give your Dealer instructions for the redemption of any mutual fund securities, you must also include details of how the proceeds should be dealt with. The options for payment are set out in paragraph 6 of section B of the Limited Authorization.
7. A Fund Company or your Dealer may, in its sole discretion, refuse to process trade instructions given under the authority of this Limited Authorization.
8. For information on the privacy policies and procedures of the Fund Company and Dealer please contact them directly.

Bankruptcy of Dealer:

1. In the event that your Dealer becomes bankrupt, you may experience significant delays in accessing your securities and you may not receive their full value.
2. Should your Dealer go bankrupt, a trustee in bankruptcy (the "trustee") will determine whether your securities are "customer name securities" under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (the "Act"). If your securities are determined to be customer name securities, the trustee will so advise you and, provided you are not indebted to your Dealer, the trustee is obliged to deliver your securities to you.
3. If your securities are not considered to be customer name securities under the Act, the securities will be placed in a pool together with those of other similar investors and shared proportionately among all of you.
4. Under the Act, "customer name securities" refers to securities held in your name by the Dealer, or in the Dealer's name held on your behalf and registered in your name, or which are in the process of being registered in your name. This does not include securities that are registered in your name which, by endorsement or otherwise, are in negotiable form. It is currently unclear whether by signing this Limited Authorization you will render your securities "negotiable" or "endorsed", thereby causing them to lose their status as "customer name securities".

Fees and Commissions:

1. You may have to pay a commission to your Dealer for any orders for purchase/s or switch/es. This commission may be negotiable.
2. Charges may also apply to redemptions depending on the purchase option you originally selected.

The Dealer undertakes to provide the Fund Company with a copy of the signed LAF if so requested. The parties agree that the trade instructions submitted together with a copy of this ICN will have the same force and effect as if a copy of the LAF had accompanied such trade instructions.
